ICA FITNESS COUNCIL TO CELEBRATE 23rd ANNUAL SYMPOSIUM ON NATURAL FITNESS & SPORTS

JOIN US! ICA's gala Symposium on Natural Fitness and Sports for 2015 will feature a cavalcade of stars, guest celebrity athletes and leading educators! The 23rd Annual ICA Symposium on Natural Fitness & Sports includes three days of continuing education in a multi-faceted program, featuring the exciting, star-packed presentations that have made this the highlight of the chiropractic calendar for over two decades.

Mark your calendars for March 5-7, 2015 and come to this gala program at The Columbus Renaissance Hotel in Columbus, Ohio. Plan on a full and fantastic weekend of powerful presenters, fitness stars, champion athletes, and innovative, practical chiropractic continuing education offerings. There's no other program on exercise, sports, and chiropractic like the ICA Symposium on Natural Fitness, which features special highlights: your Symposium registration includes entry to a massive array of events that weekend offering fitness and fun for all ages at the Arnold Sports Festival - the largest multi-sport fitness weekend in the world!

This is more than a seminar: these special 23rd Anniversary offerings feature quality continuing education program sessions and exciting combinations of interconnected events. Registrants in ICA's seminar program held over Thursday, Friday and Saturday also attend special parts of the Arnold Sports Festival Weekend, including tickets to the "Arnold, Champions & Legends Sunday Morning Showcase", personally hosted by the world's most famous chiropractic patient, global superstar Arnold Schwarzenegger that Sunday morning. ICA Fitness Symposium registrants can choose between a Deluxe Package for their Symposium program (that includes the Arnold, Champions & Legends Sunday Morning Showcase), or a full VIP Package including the Arnold Sunday Morning Showcase PLUS front-section, reserved-seat entry to the major Arnold Weekend bodybuilding and fitness competitions Friday & Saturday nights!

The 23rd Annual Natural Fitness Symposium's continuing education program is under final planning stages and coordination to be co-sponsored by Life Chiropractic College West, with a lineup of renowned faculty dedicated to exercise, fitness training, performance enhancement, and athletic competition in the context of chiropractic care. Attendees learn directly from leaders in exercise, sports and chiropractic and enjoy special time with celebrity athletes. This dynamic program in fitness and sports chiropractic will feature the special combinations of high-energy, information-packed and inspiring presentations on sports case-management settings, practical applications scenarios and celebrity athlete guests which have made the ICA Symposium such a powerful educational event each year.

Visit the Symposium InfoSite through icasportsscience.org for program details and to register online, or call (800) 423-4690 or (703) 528-5000 (Eastern Time Zone) for program and schedule details, faculty highlights, and registration.

JOIN US at the 23rd Annual ICA Symposium on Natural Fitness and Sports and be part of this dynamic, multi-faceted weekend that is completely unique in its energy, educational impact, variety, and star power!
